Important Dates for 1997/98

1997

September 3 - 5, 1997  Orientation Week. All new students are required to attend.

September 8, 1997  Fall term Graduate courses begin.

September 10, 1997  Last day for submission of a thesis prior to an oral examination and receipt of a recommendation from the Graduate Programme Director, for students who expect to fulfill all Master's degree requirements before Fall Convocation.

October 1 - 3, 1997  Rosh Hashanah - No classes will be scheduled on the evening prior to, nor during the day of, these religious holy days. However, University offices will be open normal hours.

September 29, 1997  For students who expect to fulfill all Master's degree requirements before the Fall Convocation, this is the last possible date for an oral exam and for the Faculty of Graduate Studies to receive through Graduate Programme Directors, the favourable decision of the thesis/dissertation examining committee.

October 11, 1997  Yom Kippur - No classes will be scheduled on the evening prior to, nor during the day of, this religious holy day. However, University offices will be open normal hours.

October 3, 1997  Last day to enrol in fall term courses. Please discuss your enrolment with your Supervisor/Academic Advisor prior to completing appropriate form with the Graduate Programme Assistant.

October 6, 1997  Three unbound copies of each thesis in final acceptable form must be delivered to the Faculty of Graduate Studies (Room N912 Ross Bldg.).

October 13, 1997  Thanksgiving - University is closed

November 1997  Convocation. Date to be advised.

November 7, 1997  Last day to withdraw from a Fall term course without receiving a grade at the discretion of the Programme Director. Please discuss your enrolment with your Supervisor/Academic Advisor prior to completing appropriate form with the Graduate Programme Assistant.

December 1997  Thesis Supervision.
Students should commence discussions with faculty members on the matter of Thesis Supervision. Please refer to the document entitled Master's Programme Progress Guidelines.

December 7, 1997  Last regular day of Fall term courses.

Saturday, December 6, 1997  Women's Remembrance Day - No classes held between 11:30 a.m and 1:30 p.m.

December 8, 1997  Fall term examinations begin.
Last day to submit term work.

December 22, 1997  Last day of examinations.

1998

January 5, 1998  Winter term Graduate courses begin.

January 30, 1998  Last day to enrol in winter term courses. Please follow procedure as for Fall term.

February 16- 22, 1998  Reading Week

March 6, 1998  Last day to withdraw from a winter term course. Refer to fall term procedures.

Wednesday April 15, 1998  Thesis Supervision. Students are to advise the Graduate Programme office of the arrangement concluded for Thesis Supervision.
M.Sc Progress Report #1 is due in the Graduate Programme office. Refer to the document entitled Master's Programme Progress Guideline provided during September 1996 Orientation Week. The Thesis Supervisor as well as the second member of the Thesis Supervisory Committee must be advised on Progress Report #1.

August 14, 1998  M.Sc Progress Report #2 is due in the Graduate Programme Office together with a preliminary draft copy of the students thesis.

January 15, 1999  Thesis Proposal In order graduate within the time frame of twenty months, students are advised to submit a copy of their thesis proposal, (duly approved by their respective Supervisory Committee) to the Graduate Programme office. This proposal will then be forwarded to the Faculty of Graduate Studies for their approval. Please note that the Oral Examination can take place no earlier than three (3) months from the date of approval of this thesis by FGS.

Revised: September 2, 1997